1. On 15 December 1954 the Central Committee of the PZPR (Polish United Workers' Party) will meet to deal with the new changes in the Security Police (UB). It is assumed that Stanislaw Radkiewicz, former Minister of Public Security, will be strongly censured.
2. Antoni Alster, member of the Central Committee and director of its organizational department, is the central figure and real executive director of the new institute (sic) of the UB. The directorate of the institute is located temporarily in the State Council's building on Krakowskie Przedmiescie.
3. Colonel Flatow, former deputy to General Komar, has reportedly been released together with about 20 other persons.
